| TIME | RUNNING ORDER |
|--------------------------|---|
| 9:15am EST 2:15pm GMT | Crisis Group team online, setting up the call. |
| 9:25am EST 2:25pm GMT | Comfort and Susana on the call, preparing for the presentation. Richard to join as panelist in the background. |
| 9:30am EST 2:30pm GMT | Susana calls the meeting to a start and welcomes guests: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Welcome to our flagship event of the year where we discuss Crisis Group's annual publication on the 10 Conflicts to Watch for the year ahead.• Troubling undercurrents in 2021 – terrible humanitarian emergencies brought on by war; several flashpoints involving major powers look increasingly dangerous, the climate emergency's potentially destabilising impact is ever clearer. As our look ahead to 2022 shows, many bad situations round the world could easily get worse.• From Ethiopia to Afghanistan and Yemen, today we will discuss the top 10 conflicts Crisis Group will be watching more closely in the year ahead.• Introduce Comfort - Crisis Group's newly appointed President & CEO (Susana will say a few introductory words about Comfort as this is her first trustee event as Pres & CEO).• Introduce the format of the event: in-conversation with Comfort for 15-20 mins, and then we open for the Q&A session.• Let everyone know that the call will be recorded.• If guests want to ask a question, they should type it into the Q&A box. |
| 9:35am EST 2:35pm GMT | Susana moderates in-conversation with Comfort, for around 15-20 minutes. Suggested topics may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What are some of the big picture trends that Crisis Group is most worried about this coming year?• The recent withdrawal of Tigray forces provides a glimmer of hope: what should international actors be doing to provide support for talks and make the most of this opportunity?• In Afghanistan, there is a humanitarian catastrophe looming and Western |
